

Harmonica en A

Intro :      Em D C   A2/B7              Em D C A2/B7
                  C   G       B7              C   A2              Em

Em      D              C              A2/B7 He deals the cards as a meditation C                              G              B7	Em      D      C              A2/B7 And those he plays never suspect C                              A2              Em
Em      D              C              A2/B7 He doesn't play for the money he wins C                              G              B7	Em      D      C              A2/B7 He doesn't play for respect C                              A2              Em
Em      D              C              A2/B7 He deals the cards to find the answer C                              G              B7	Em      D      C              A2/B7 The sacred geometry of chance C                              A2              Em
The hidden law of a probable outcome	The numbers lead a dance

Em              D                              C              A2/B7      Em              D                              C      A2/B7 I know that the spades are the swords of a soldier I know that the clubs are weapons of war C                              G              B7              C                              A2              Em
I know that diamonds mean money for this art      But that's not the shape of my heart

Em              D      C              A2/B7 He may play the jack of diamonds C                              G              B7	Em              D      C              A2/B7 He may lay the queen of spades C                              A2              Em
He may conceal a king in his hand	While the memory of it fades

refrain

C                              A2                              Bm | Em | B7
That's not the shape      shape of my heart

| Em B7 | G G | D F# | G F# | Bm Bm | G F# | Bm Bm

Em              D      C              A2      B7 And if I told you that I loved you C                              G              B7	Em              D      C                              A2/B7 You'd maybe think there's something wrong C                              A2              Em
I'm not a man of too many faces Em              D              C              A2/B7	Em              D      C              A2/B7
Those who speak know nothing C                              G              B7	And find out to their cost C                              A2              Em
Like those who curse their luck in too many places	And those who fear are lost

refrain

C                              A2                              Em That's not the shape of my heart C                              A2	Em      D              C              A2/B7
That's not the shape Shape of my heart

outro :      Em D C   A2 B7 Em